VI конференция Европейской социологической ассоциации

СТАРЕЮЩИЕ ОБЩЕСТВА, НОВЫЕ ТЕХНОЛОГИИ

Мурсия, Испания

23–26 сентября 2003 г.

Ours is a time of transformations just as major as those occurring in the age of the sociological classics. Can our concepts and our organizing metaphors also transform themselves and become the basis of a new sociology for our 'ageing' societies in Europe and elsewhere? Europe's ideologies, values, hierarchies, boundaries, life styles, and institutions, as well as its populations are facing significant disruption and renewal. In an era of change, what are the emerging social regularities, configuration, conflicts, and cleavages? What are our sociological constants, categories, and benchmarks with which to uncover the inner workings of society? The Conference invites you to join a lively and vigorous debate at the juncture where ageing concepts and ageing societies meet in order to suggest the new.
